How often do we come across the peculiar case of a French dad, an Indian mom and their special needs son, Rafa, shuttling between three countries on three different continents?

BOM-CDG-GIG is a tapestry of their unique experiences woven from snippets posted on Facebook. A tearjerker that promises to crack you up too!

Roshan was born in Mumbai on August 15, 1982. She graduated in arts with merit from St Xavier's College, Mumbai and did her Mass Communication post-graduate diploma from Sophia College, Mumbai. She then completed her Master's in International Relations from the University of Kent in Brussels. She also holds the Diplôme Supérieur in French awarded by the Alliance Française. She has worked as a journalist with The Mumbai Mirror and The Asian Age. In Brussels, she joined the Institute for Environmental Security (IES), an international NGO as a programme assistant and is still an associate fellow with them. Her proficiency in the French language gave her the opportunity to work as a translator and interpreter with Naval Group, a French shipbuilding company. She is now a full-time mom to her special needs son and is a guest writer for the Free Press Journal. Roshan lives in Normandy, France.
